All regular public skating is at the Jack Ballantyne Memorial Youth Arena.

Admission Standards

- Children 12 years of age and under must wear a CSA-approved helmet. A face cage is recommended.
- Children 12 years of age and under must be accompanied to the skate by a responsible person 16 years or older who must maintain visual contact throughout the skate.
- Bicycle helmets are not permitted.
- Adults are encouraged (but not required) to wear a CSA-approved helmet.
- Individuals with serious medical conditions should be accompanied by another individual knowledgeable about their condition(s) and responsible for their direct supervision.
- The City does not provide skates or skate rentals. Helmets, early learner skate aids and assistive sleds are available to use free of charge at all public skating events.
