Subject to subsections 12.2 through 12.5, all development charges for a development are payable upon the first building permit being issued in relation to a building or structure on land to which a development charge applies and until the development charge has been paid in full, no building permit shall be issued.

12.2. Subdivision Agreement (s. 26 (2) of the Act)

Notwithstanding subsections 12.1, 12.3 or 12.4, the amount of the development charge with respect to water services, shall be payable for development that requires approval of a plan of subdivision under section 51 of the Planning Act or a consent under section 53 of the Planning Act and for which a Subdivision Agreement or Consent Agreement is entered into immediately upon the parties entering in the Subdivision Agreement or Consent Agreement for all lots and blocks on which single detached dwellings and semi-detached dwellings are permitted in the plan of subdivision or pursuant to the consent.

12.3. Rental Housing and Institutional Development (s.26.1 of the Act)

Notwithstanding subsection 12.1, development charges for rental housing and institutional developments are due and payable in six equal annual payments commencing with the first installment payable on the date of occupancy, and each subsequent installment, including interest.

12.4. Site Plan and Zoning Amendment Application (s. 26.2 of the Act)

Where the development of land results from the approval of a site plan or zoning by-law amendment application received on or after January 1, 2020, and building permit issuance occurs after the approval of the application and within the timeframe set out in section 26.2(5) of the Act, the development charges under subsections 5.1 and 5.2 shall be calculated on the rates set out in Schedule "A" on the date of the planning application, including interest. Where both planning applications apply, development charges under subsections 5.1 and 5.2 shall be calculated on the rates in effect on the day of the later planning application, including interest.

12.5. Agreement for Earlier or Later Payment (s. 27 of the Act)

Notwithstanding subsections 12.1 through 12.4 hereof, the City may enter into an agreement with a person/owner of land who is required to pay a development charge for:

- 12.5.1. All or any part of a development charge to be paid before or after it would otherwise be payable;
- 12.5.2. The total amount of the development charge payable under an agreement under this section is the amount of the development charge that would be determined under this by-law on the day specified in the agreement or, if no such day is specified, at the earlier of,
 - 12.5.2.1. The time the development charge or any part of it is payable under the agreement;
 - 12.5.2.2. the time the development charge would have been payable in the absence of the agreement
- 12.5.3. In an agreement under this section, the City may charge interest, at a rate stipulated in the agreement, on that part of the development charge payable after it would otherwise be payable.

13. Re-development Allowances to Reduce the Development Charge

- 13.1. Where a development charge is payable for a development which replaces a preexisting development including a change of use in an existing building, a redevelopment allowance shall be credited against the development charge otherwise payable.
- 13.2. Demolition Permit or Demolition Control Permit In order to be eligible for a re-development allowance:
 - 13.2.1. The pre-existing development must be one in respect to which a valid demolition permit or demolition control permit was issued by the City within the five (5) years, related to a residential use or ten (10) years, for a non-residential use, preceding the due date of payment of the development charge hereunder and such demolition permit, demolition control permit or a certified copy thereof shall be given to the City Treasurer; and

- 13.2.2. Proof must be provided to the Chief Building Official's satisfaction that the development meets the requirements set out in section 13.2.1.
- 13.2.3. In situations where buildings are destroyed by fire or other unplanned events, sections 13.2.1 or 13.3 apply upon proof satisfactory to the City's Chief Building Official if there was not an issued demolition permit.
- 13.3. Notwithstanding section 13.2.1, if the land is engaged in brownfield redevelopment, a redevelopment period longer than the time set out in section 13.2.1, may be provided based upon the approval by the City's Deputy City Manager of Community Development or designate in consultation with the Chief Building Official, and applicable Regional Commissioner after consideration of specific development circumstances.
- 13.4. Date of Demolition

In determining eligibility for a re-development allowance under sections 13.2 and 13.3:

- a) Demolition shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of the issuance of the demolition permit or demolition control permit;
- b) For the purposes of sections 13.2 and 13.3, "demolition permit" or "demolition control permit" shall mean the first of any demolition permits or demolition control permits issued for the pre-existing development, if the demolition has taken place in more than one phase. Subsequent demolition permits or demolition control permits for that pre-existing development are not to be used in a calculation of the periods set out in sections 13.2 or 13.3; and
- c) The date calculated under sections 13.2 and 13.3 shall apply regardless of whether the first demolition permit or demolition control permit was revoked or canceled.

13.5. Calculation of Re-development Allowance

In determining the amount of any re-development allowance to be applied in calculating a development charge payable, the following shall apply:

- 13.5.1. the re-development allowance quantified in accordance with section 13.6 hereof shall apply to the whole parcel of land on which the pre-existing development exists or existed;
 - 13.5.2. any remaining re-development allowance applicable to a parcel of land from time to time, in the event of a division of the parcel of land into two or more parcels, shall be apportioned equally between or amongst the resultant parcels of land on a per unit area basis;
 - 13.5.3. the amount of the re-development allowance applicable to a parcel of land on which the pre-existing development existed or to any part thereof after any land division shall be reduced for each subsequent development in respect of which the development charge otherwise payable is or has been reduced by a re-development allowance, as building permits for such subsequent developments are issued or development charges paid, whichever first occurs.
- 13.6. Amount of Re-development Allowance
- 13.6.1. The amount of the re-development allowance shall be computed based upon the previous land use equal to:
 - 13.6.2. for residential uses, the number and type or types of units in the preexisting development multiplied by the development charge rate or rates applicable to such units; and,
 - 13.6.3. for non-residential uses, the number of square meters of building area of the pre-existing development multiplied by the development charge rate applicable to such building area.
- 13.7. Maximum Re-development Allowance and Carry Forward
- The maximum re-development allowance shall be the development charge otherwise payable. Any unused re-development allowance may be carried forward and applied to any subsequent development charge payable in respect of the same land to which it relates within five years from the date of demolition of the pre-existing development to which it relates

14. Credits (s. 38 of the Act)

14.1. Provisions of Services by Agreement

The City may agree, in writing, to allow a person/owner to perform work that relates to a service referred to herein and the City shall give the person/ owner a credit towards the development charge in accordance with the Agreement.

14.2. The amount of the credit is the reasonable cost, without interest, of doing the work as agreed by the City and the person/owner who is to be given the credit (s. 38 (2) of the Act).14.3. City Owned Industrial Land

Development charges shall be imposed on land sold by the City where such land is no longer owned by and used for the purposes of the City. The portion of the development charge with respect to infrastructure services may be satisfied by the provision of such services or as specified in a purchase and sale agreement and the City shall give a credit, for costs over and above the City's local service policy, for the amount equal to the reasonable cost to the owner of providing such services, but such credit shall not exceed the infrastructure services portion of the development charge payable.

15. Transitional Provisions – Prior Agreements

Notwithstanding anything in this by-law, if a conflict exists between the provisions of this by-law and:

- 15.1. an agreement under section 50 or 52 of the Planning Act that was in existence prior to the enactment of this by-law; or
- 15.2. any other prior agreement between the City and an owner or former owner; the provisions of the agreement shall prevail.

16. Administration16.1. Reserve Funds

- 16.1.1. There is hereby established a separate reserve fund for each service to which the development charge herein relates (s. 33 of the Act).

- 16.1.2. Each development charge shall be paid into the reserve fund or funds to which the charge relates (s. 34 of the Act).
- 16.1.3. Subject to s. 16.1.4, the money in each reserve fund established for a service may be spent only for capital costs set out herein (s. 35 of the Act).
- 16.1.4. The City may borrow money from a reserve fund and shall repay the amount used plus interest at the prescribed minimum interest rate (s. 36 of the Act).

Application of Investment Income

Income received from the investment of a development charge reserve fund or funds shall be credited to the development charge reserve fund or funds in relation to which the investment income relates.

- 16.2. Complaints about Development Charges (s. 20 of the Act)
 - 16.2.1. A person required to pay a development charge, or the person's agent, may complain to the council of the municipality imposing the development charge that:
 - 16.2.1.1. the amount of the development charge was incorrectly determined;
 - 16.2.1.2. whether a credit is available to be used against the development charge, or the amount of the credit or the service with respect to which the credit was given was incorrectly determined; or
 - 16.2.1.3. there was an error in the application of the development charges bylaw.
 - 16.2.2. A complaint may not be made later than 90 days after the day the development charge, or any part of it, is payable.
 - 16.2.3. The complaint must be in writing, must state the complainant's name, the address where notice can be given to the complainant and the reasons for the complaint.

16.2.4. The City Council shall hold a hearing into the complaint and shall give the complainant an opportunity to make representations at the hearing.

16.2.5. The City Clerk shall mail a notice of the hearing to the complainant at least 14 days before the hearing.

16.2.6. After hearing the evidence and submissions of the complainant, City Council may dismiss the complaint or rectify any incorrect determination or error that was the subject of the complaint.

16.2.7. A complainant may appeal the decision of City Council to the Ontario Land Tribunal in accordance with section 22 of the Act.

17. Unpaid Charges Collected as Taxes (s. 32 of the Act)

If a development charge or any part of it remains unpaid after it is payable, the amount unpaid shall be added to the tax roll and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes.

18. Commencement (s. 8 of the Act)

This by-law shall come into force on June 1, 2024.

19. Repeal of Existing Development Charges By-law

By-law Number 19-094, as amended, of the Corporation of the City of Cambridge are hereby repealed effective June 1, 2024.
