Help Shape Huron East: Join a Committee or Board

The Municipality of Huron East invites community-minded residents and local representatives to consider serving on a municipal committee or board. This is an opportunity to share your knowledge, experience and perspective while helping to strengthen local programs, services and decision-making.

Make a difference in your community

Committees and boards provide advice and recommendations to Council on a variety of matters, including heritage, recreation and economic development. Citizen members work alongside members of Council and municipal staff to support the community and help shape Huron East's future.

What you can contribute

- Bring local knowledge and community perspectives to discussions.
- Review information and provide thoughtful advice and recommendations.
- Work collaboratively with fellow members, Council and municipal staff.
- Support initiatives that improve services, programs and quality of life in Huron East.
- Act in accordance with the Municipality's Code of Conduct for Citizen Appointments.

Who should apply?

We welcome applications from people who are interested in public service and committed to the well-being of Huron East. Relevant professional, volunteer or lived experience can be an asset, but a willingness to participate, listen and contribute constructively is equally important.

Eligibility: Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and eligible to vote in municipal elections in Huron East to be appointed.

Why serve?

- Play an active role in your community.
- Share your skills, ideas and experience on issues that matter locally.
- Learn more about municipal government and community services.
- Connect and collaborate with others who care about Huron East.
