Biography

A dedicated public servant, veteran, and coach, I am Nigel Williams, and I am running for Leamington Municipal Council to give a strong, dependable voice to all residents, all generations, and anyone who wants to be part of the local conversation.

I served 14 years in the Canadian Armed Forces, deploying on two combat tours to Afghanistan—first in 2006 with the 1st Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (PPCLI), and again in 2011 with the 3rd Battalion. My military service instilled in me a deep commitment to country, community, integrity, and disciplined leadership, teaching me both how to lead under pressure and how to listen and follow, when team unity matters most.

After retiring from active military service in 2017, my family and I made Southern Ontario his home in 2018. In 2019, I became a real estate agent at Royal LePage Binder Real Estate Brokerage, where it has afforded me the opportunity to meet people all over the Windsor Essex region. Above all, I am a family man who cares deeply about the future, safety, and vitality of the Leamington community, because I want our young people to call it home for a very long time.

Prior to my military career, I spent a decade competing at the highest levels of professional sports, playing in the Canadian Football League (CFL) in addition to a short stint in the National Football League (NFL). That drive for continuous improvement, helped me transition seamlessly into coaching, where in 2018 I joined the Essex Raven Football organization, to give back as a member of their coaching staff. Then, in 2021 I was truly fortunate to join the coaching staff at the University of Windsor Football Team, where I continue to mentor young athletes, investing in the growth of the region's next generation of leaders. These young men will hopefully leave our program as better men, husbands, fathers, and contributing members of society.

I am ready to bring my real-world experience, relentless work ethic, and passion for positive change to Leamington Council.
